(5) The provisions of this section must not render the personal representative of the deceased liable for having distributed any part of the estate of the deceased after the expiry of the period of six (6) months referred to in subsection (3) of this section, on the grounds that they ought to have taken into account the possibility that a Court might grant leave for an application by virtue of this section to be made by the surviving party after that period.

(6) Subsection (5) of this section will not prejudice any power to recover any part of the estate so distributed arising by virtue of the making of an order in pursuance of this section.
